Sports day is tomorrow. Class 208 is going to win tug-of-war. It's a game of a rope, and all of us work together. We are the strongest. ^^

David Huang: Ya! We will win if we all remember what the PE teacher taught us. Pull harder and pull together at the same time.

John Marvin: No way! You won't get the prize because the team of my class is much better than yours. Besides, we were the champion last year.

Patty Ku: John, come on. Winning isn't everything. We just enjoy working together.

David Huang: I couldn't agree with you more, Patty. Cooperation is what we learn in the game of tug-of-war.

Christy Lin: Go! Go! Go! Keep working hard! We will all try our best. We are already the number one team in our hearts, right?

Patty Ku: You can say that again.
