(一) When I got home

When I got home, I couldn't believe my eyes, Some people had broken in and given me a big surprise.

Through no fault of my own, They had turned my world upside down.

In the kitchen,

Broken bowls, cups, and plates had covered every inch of the floor.

Knives, forks, and spoons had been thrown there with them.

Everything from the refrigerator had been taken out. And some of them had even been eaten and drunk.

In the living room,

They had knocked all the photos off the walls. They had ripped the sofa and pulled out all the stuffing.

They had pushed all the books onto the floor.

They had taken everything out of the drawers and thrown them all over the place.

() 28. Why didn't the people go upstairs?

- (A) They found what they were looking for.
- (B) The got a phone call and decided to go home.
- (C) They had run away when they heard the police coming.
- (D) They had left their message and gone on their way.

(二)

Dear Gary,

Thanks again for agreeing to look after my dogs for me when I'm away. Now, I won't have to worry about them.

As you know, both are black, and one is larger and older than the other. They are Lucy and Lucky. They get fed once in the morning and once in the evening. However, I forgot to tell you that I usually walk them before I feed them. Besides, before you take them out, you have to help them put on their coats. One is red and for Lucy, and the other is blue

() 30. Gary called Nancy. Which one did he most likely ask about?

- (A) These coats for dogs are on sale for only $9.
- (B) I have one quick question. How much food should I put in each bowl?
- (C) Have you been looking for your dogs? If you need for help, call me.
- (D) I'll pass on the news to Lucy and

Lucky. I bet they'll be happy to hear it.
