(二) 閱讀測驗

Dear Dr. Frank Smith,

I'm writing about the vet technician job at your animal hospital. You are still looking for one, aren't you?

I saw the job on dreamjobs.com, and I think that I am the right person for this job. I have worked as a vet technician for the past five years. That is more than twice as many years of experience as what you ask for. In that time, I have done both simple and difficult procedures on all kinds of animals, not just cats and dogs. Also, I did a lot of them without the vet's help.

Over the years, I have not only treated the animals but also helped their owners. For them, taking their pets to the vet can be a hard time, so I do everything possible to make them feel at ease. The animals mean everything to them, don't they?

At the moment, I'm working for a young vet at a small hospital. Although he knows I can do the procedures without any problem, he chooses to do everything himself. So, I haven't used my skills for some time now. I can't keep on like this, so I would like the chance to meet and talk about my coming to work for you.

Sincerely,

Abby Normal
