The story about Oedipus is very miserable.

When Oedipus was born, someone told his father, "Your son will kill you one day." Oedipus' father felt scared when he heard about that, so he took baby Oedipus to a mountain top. Baby Oedipus was left there to die. However, a shepherd passed by and found him. Baby Oedipus was saved.

When Oedipus got older, a fortune-teller told him that he would kill his father and marry his mother. So, he quickly left home. On the road, he met his father. Unfortunately, the two started to fight with each other. At the end, Oedipus killed his father.

A few days later, Oedipus arrived in a city called Thebes. There was a dangerous monster, Sphinx. Sphinx liked to ask people questions. When the person got the wrong answer, Sphinx would eat him or her. Oedipus outsmarted Sphinx and saved the city. His prize was to marry the queen of the city. However, the queen was actually Oedipus' mother. After they found out the truth, the queen hanged herself and Oedipus blinded himself.
