In 1971, Sophia found a bottle on the beach. There was a letter in the bottle.

June 6, 1970

Dear Mason,

You didn't show up that Friday when I waited at your school gate as usual. You've been lost to me since. Everyone's been telling me fifteen years is enough and that it's time to let you go.

But I know you are somewhere in this world. I just haven't found out where you are. I'll keep looking for you, even though it may take another 15 years. I will never give up. I believe we'll see each other again someday.

Love,
Dad

After reading the letter, Sophia felt sad for the father and wanted to find him. With very few clues to start with, Sophia worked hard for years to find out what happened to the father and the child. However, she could not get a clear story. Six years later, Sophia decided to write about the whole story of looking for the father. Her book came out in 1977, and, to her surprise, it sold thousands of copies.

(C) "This is Mason calling. Thanks for everything. A bad guy took me away from our house fifteen years ago. A nice woman saved me, but I was too little to tell her where my home was..."
(D) "I'm Adam, Mason's best friend. We both celebrated our fiftieth birthday this week. I wanted to tell you that in fact, we ran away together at the age of fifteen to see the big world. Now we own a factory..."

A long time ago, there was a castle in the forest. People called it The Castle of Bats because there were many bats around the castle. The castle looked scary, and most people were too afraid to go near it. Some even said they saw ghosts around it.

To nobody's surprise, some people went into the castle to look for an adventure. However, they never came out. Where did they go? Some said the ghosts killed them, some believed the bats ate them, and some thought they died inside the castle because they had nothing to eat. But most people thought it was actually a hoax; the stories of ghosts and missing people were all fake.

Now, the castle still stands in the forest, but nobody goes there anymore. Are you brave enough to go into the castle by yourself?
