

Teaching Strategies

教學策略

Athena Wang

王佩蘭

English Teaching

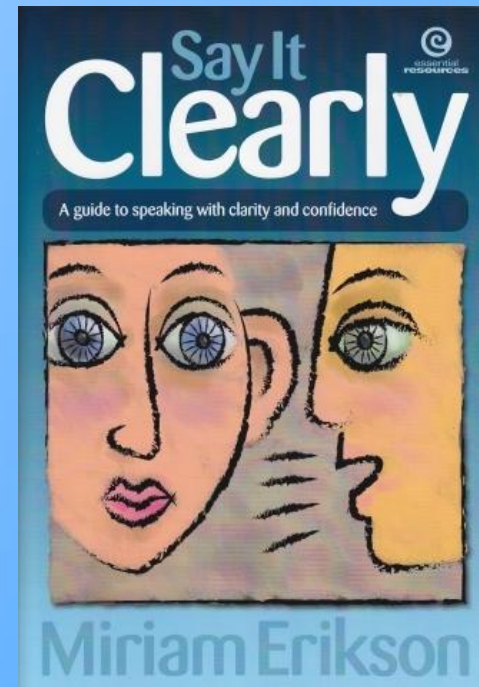

- We are not suggesting that any of the skills are taught or learned in isolation.

Listening Teaching

- It's important to say things clearly, and to repeat them

Listen and Do Activities

- Instruction

- Classroom English
- Giving instructions according to the content of the text Ex: the vocabularies game

- Moving about

- The exercises which the children have to physically move about. Ex: Listen and Do

Listen and Do Activities

- Put up your hand

- Ask children to put out their hands when they hear a certain word or sound etc.

- Mime stories

- Teacher says a story and students do the actions.

- (we are sitting on a boat , a very small boat. We row the boat. We row and row)

- Drawing

- Listen and draw

Listen for Information

- Identifying exercises (listen and find)
- Listen for the mistakes (the story
Putting things in order)
- Questionnaires (listen and practice)
- Listen and color

Listen and Repeat Activities

- Rhymes
- Songs
- “Listen and repeat ”

Listen to the Stories

- Telling stories
- Creating Stories
- Reading stories
- Independent listening

Reading Teaching Strategies

Teaching Reading

- Just as listening is the main source of language when students start to learn a language, print is the second main source.
- Making reading an enjoyable activity is a very important part of the language learning experience.

Approaches to Reading

- Phonics (phonic book) (the text)
- Look and say (recognition of a range of words and phrases) (the text)
 - Words wall
- Whole sentence reading
- Language experience approach (Children's own language)

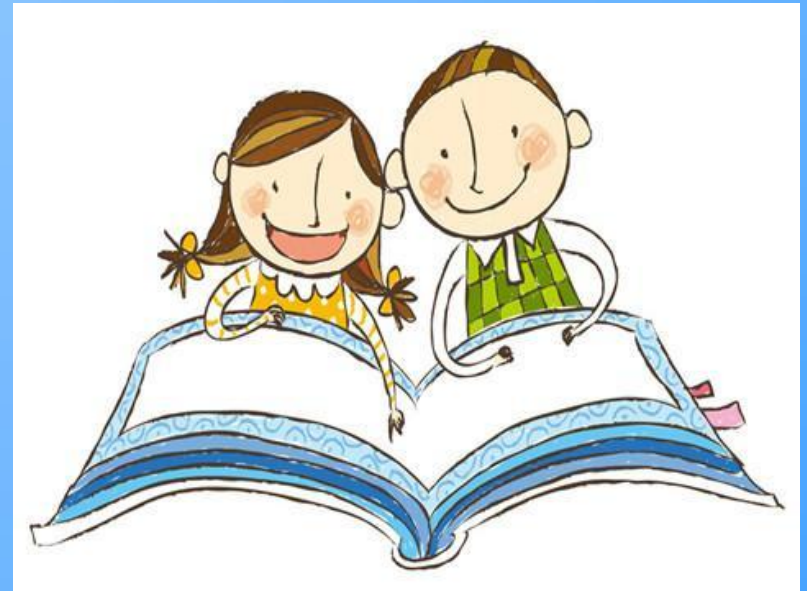

Which method to choose

- Reading a story from a book (the text)
- Reading a class story
- Reading texts based on the child's language.
 - The type of reading is often based on a picture. (the text)
- Reading familiar nursery rhymes or songs

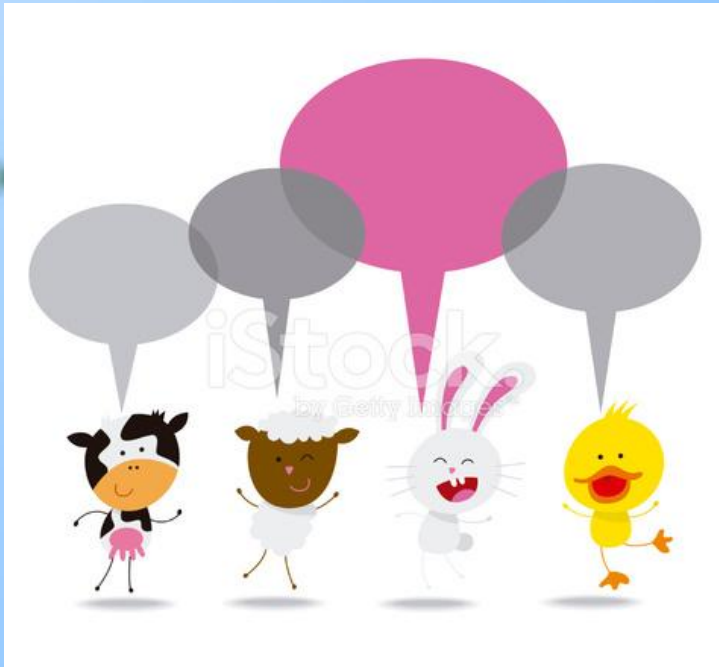

Ways to Read

- Reading aloud
- Silent reading

Oral Work Teaching Strategies

English Teaching

- Chinese VS English?
- Providing language through controlled and guided activities VS natural talk.
- Correction:
 - controlled and guided activities— correct them at once.
 - free talk—teacher takes notes and corrects them later.

Present the New Language

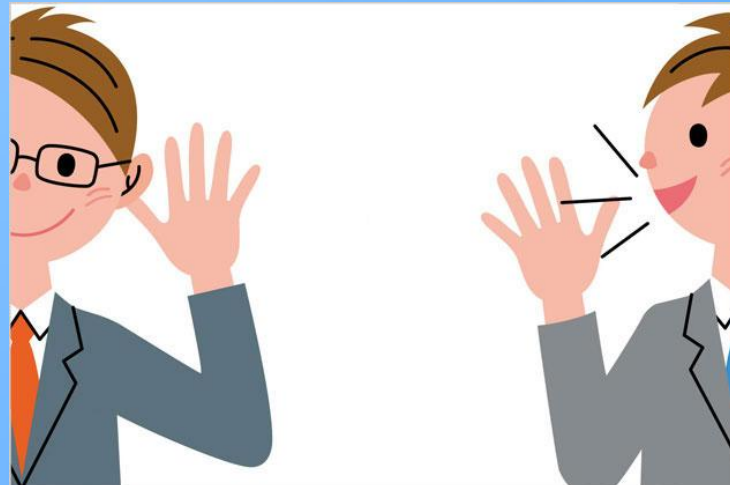

- Through the students
- Using a puppets for dialogue
- Drawing and say

The ways for practice

- Controlled practice (the text)
- Guided practice (the text)
- Dialogues and role play work (role play theater)
- Free activities

Writing Teaching Strategies

Teaching Writing

- Practice in speaking freely helps when doing free writing activities. Reading helps students to see the rules of writing, and helps build up their language choices.

Controlled Writing Activities

- Straight copying
- Matching
- Organizing and copying
- Delayed copying
- Copying book
- Dictation (listen and write)

Free Writing Activities

- Pre-writing activities
 - Talking about the subject
 - Work stars
 - Mapping
 - Vocabulary charts
 - Topic vocabulary
- Dialogues
- Descriptions
- Letters

